FRIDAY MARCH 13 1857.

RECEPTION OF EX-SECRETARY GUTHERE .- The reception accorded to the Hon. James Guthrie by the citizens of Louisville last evening, upon the occasion of his return home from a residence of four years at the National Capital, must have been eminently gratifying to his feelings. He arrived on the train from Lexington at 7 o'clock, and was met at the depot by the committee of escort, and a large assem blage of people. A carriage was provided for the distinguished gentleman, and, preceded by a band of music, the procession marched to Mozart Hall. There an tramense crowd had gathered, eager to extend a greating to the ex-Secretary. When he appeared upon the platform, accompanied by Mayor Barbee, Chancellor Pirtle, Dr. Ewing, Col. Caldwell, L. L. Shreve, H. D. Newcomb, Col. Davidson, J. S. Lithgow, and others, the entire audience arose and welcomed his presence with hearty cheers.

Chancellor Pirtle, on behalf of the citizens, welcomed Mr. Guthrie home, on behalf of the city, county and State. He referred in eloquent terms to the ability and fidelity with which the finances of the government had been managed-how the great industrial interests of the nation had been protected, and our commercial affairs fostered, and remarked upon the pride felt by Kentucky in seeing one of her sons occupying a position so honorable as that from which Mr. G. had just retired, and which was secondary only to that of the great Hamilton, who organized the financial department of our government.

Mr. Guthrie responded with much feeling. He expressed his unbounded satisfaction at this cordial welcome home. It was honor and pleasure indeed, said he, to retire from office with the applause of ne's own party; but doubly so when all parties at tested his fidelity. In the discharge of the duties of the Treasury department he might not have brought the brilliant qualities of some, but he knew that his fellow citizens would accord to him integrity of action and purity of motive.

He said the singular prosperity of the national finances was a great danger, and he had guarded against the condition of affairs operating to the nation's disadvantage. Mr. G. entered into a some what extended review of his official acts, and spoke in grateful terms of the support yielded him by all parties and all of the national press. He had labored to serve the nation and not a party; and with what success the record of his official service would testify.

In concluding Mr. Guthrie said, that having spent forty-one years of his life at the bar, he should not think of resuming the practice of his profession. But he hoped that he had vigor and intellect enough left him to serve Louisville. It was his purpose to devote his remaining energies to the development of our advantage as a city, and the resources of the State.

When Mr. G. had concluded his remarks hundred: of his friends pressed about him, extending him their congratulations. He was afterwards escorted to his residence, and honored with a serenade. The booming of cannon during the evening announced to the city and the surrounding country the arrival at home of our distinguished fellow-townsman.

A THEATRICAL IMBROGLIO.—The Cincinnati Commercial reports a "scene" off the stage which occurred a few evenings since at one of the principal hotels of that city. The parties are an eminent ragedienne and her agent, a gentleman who was me time since secretary to a prominent member of the theatrical profession. The charge preferred by the lady against the agent is an assault with intent to kill, and we understand that at the time the aleged outrage was committed, the guests of the hotel were alarmed by loud shrieks proceeding from the lady's apartment, which upon entering, they found the lady, her hair disheveled, and herself in a high state of excitement, while the agent was tanding lith a roll of show bills in his hand.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

PORTLAND TELEGRAPH LINE. Office at Portland, Delime's Drug Store, on the wharf.

Office at Shippingport, in the Canal Office. Office at Louisville, Union Telegraph Office

The river continues to fall. There were only 5 feet 9 inches water in the canal, and the Ohio, which went through, had to lighten. All the boats detained have passed through the canal, and there will be no further delay, as all the repairs necessary have been made.

The weather was cold yesterday, but last night there were indications of a favorable change. The state of the thermometer and baroincter are given in the preceding column.

For Memphis.-That splendid packet, the Northerner, will be found at the Portland wharf by daylight this morning, and she returns to Memphis this evening. She is a large boat, splendidly furnished, and her accommodations are equal to those of our finest New Orleans packets. She makes her trips with lightning speed, and at Memphis she counects with the superior line of New Orleans packets. The N. takes freight and passengers for all intermediate points. Capt. Smith is her commander, and Mr. Arthur is the clerk. These gentlemen are at home in their respective vocations, and very popular.

For St. Louis .- The Alvin Adams, Capt. Lamb is the packet for St. Louis to-day. The Adams has few competitors in speed, and her accommodations are of the finest order.

The Superior is the mailboat for Cincinnati today, the Strader having been withdrawn on account of low water. The Dove, Capt. Saunders, with Mr. Pendleton as clerk, is the Kentucky river packet. The Wm. Dickson leaves for Tennessee river. The H. Bridges leaves for Green river. The Rainbow is the Henderson packet. The Diamond is the Nash-Aille packet, and the Clifton leaves for Pittsburg.

The H. D. Newcomb, Capt Spotts, is expected to arrive this morning, and the R. J. Ward to-night. The Newcomb will leave for New Orleans to-morrow evening, and the Ward on Monday.

The steamer White Bluff, from Arkansas river, having run into and sunk a coal-boat at the mouth of the Cumberland, was attached by the Marshal of the Chancery Court, on application of the owner of the coal-boat. The matter was compromised yesterday between the parties by the payment of $2,000 to the owner of the coal-boat.

Lighter Sunk .- The steamer Ohio, from Cincinnati, bound for New Orleans, arrived here on Wednesday. As she was drawing too much water, one of Capt. Lockhart's lighters was procured, in which the Ohio discharged about 150 tons of freight. She was moored at the wharf between Sixth and Seventh streets night before last, with the lighter alongside of her. The wharf was crowded with boats, and the Diamond, which had just come out of the canal, was making a landing. The captain of the D. offered to tow the lighter to a safe place at the head of the canal, but received a very insolent reply from the captain of the Ohio. The Diamond then succeeded in making a landing, and coming in contact with the lighter, it commenced sinking. Most of the freight was got off as soon as possible, and some little fell into the water. It consisted of whisky, pork, flour, flaxseed, and some hardware. All was more or less damaged by water, but not to any great extent. Men were engaged last evening in getting out some of the freight, mostly barrel pork, which had rolled into the river off the lighter. They were to receive $5 for every barrel recovered. The water in the lighter was also being pumped out. The port warden, who examined the lighter, is of opinion that it was sunk from being overloaded and in a leaky condition, and not from any damage it sustained from the Diamond, as was at first supposed.

A loaded coal-boat, in tow of the little tow-boat Monongahela, was sunk, on Tuesday last, nearly straight along the channel, at Lorch's glass-works, below Pittsburg.

Capt. Millinger, formerly of the Messenger, died in Allegheny City on Tuesday. We are indebted to the polite clerks of the Alvin Adams for river favors.

The St. Louis News, of Wednesday evening says: The weather this morning has been colder than ever, and the river opposite the city is so full of ice, that but few boats, if any, will attempt to go out to-day. The Peoria, Naples, and Keokuk packets have all laid up until the weather becomes warm. The Polar Star arrived from Weston, Missouri river, this morning, full of passengers and well loaded with freight. We learn from the l'olar Star that the Missouri river is becoming very low and difficult to navigate, and that a large number of the last boats that started up were compelled to discharge part of their cargoes on the way.

Judge Todd, of Marion county, Ind., has in his possion the sword and scabbard worn by the illustrious and immortal "Joe Daviess," of Kentucky, at the battle of Tippecanoe. On one side is inscribed "Liberty and Independence," on the other "E Pluribus Unum, 1783." At the period of his death, Joe Daviess was the Grand Master of Masons in Kentucky. The relic is the property of Judge Todd, who was the pupil and friend of Joe Daviess, by whom it will be presented to the Grand Ledge of Indiana at the next annual session.

HORRID MURDER.-We learn from the Maysville Eagle that Mr. James Taber was brutally murdered at his residence in Fleming county, on Sunday night, the 8th inst., by two of his negro men. He was lying in the kitchen on a pallet, watching for some of his slaves who he expected would run off that night, when he fell into a doze and was killed with blows from an ax. The murderers escaped.

A MAN CUT IN Two .- The town of Benton, Ind. a few days since was thrown into great excitemenby a ferocious and fatal attack made by a man named Thomas E. Brake, upon a worthless fellow who had been loafing about Brake's wagon shop. Being hasty and hot of temper, Brake became provoked at the loafer, and taking up a broad-axe, literally chopped him in tico! The murderer was arrested at once.

Commodore Vanderbilt is about to employ wo of his steamers as a line between New York and Havre and Southampton. One of these, the Vanderbilt, is one of the largest ships afloat, and as she has not yet been to sea, a great curiosity will naturally be felt respecting her performance. The Vanderbilt will sail on the 5th of May, preceded by the Ariel on the 16th of April.

It is stated that the Collins' line will continue its trips during the ensuing summer at least, at the reduced rate of $19,250 per trip. The steamers, however, will run slower, and thus make up in a measure for the loss of government pay. But long trips signify few passengers, and it may be doubted whether the line will be able to sustain itself.

TO THE PUBLIC.
My attention was called this afternoon, for I had not seen it before, to a publication in the Courier of the 7th inst., signed "A Friend to the City Schools," in which I, as Superintendent of the Public Schools, am noticed. In "A friend to the Public Schools," I recognise the Rev. Mr. Dearing of the Methodist Episcopal Church. I choose to call names because most persons in this community know who the superintendent of Public Schools is. As there is a discrepancy in the statement of "A Friend to the Public Schools" of the facts in which he chooses to introduce me and my recollection of the same, I ask for the privilege he has awarded "Y" to speak for myself.

Eight or ten days previous to the ball of which he speaks, he stated to me, near the post-office, that there was to be a ball in the Second Ward School-House. I replied that I had heard no ming of it, and supposed he was mistaken. He. ided that it was so. The answer I gave to this was, that he knew more of it than I did, as I was at the first of it. He hoped there would be nothing of it, but said it certainly was contemplated. I expressed recret the hope there would be nothing of it, but said it certainly was contemplated. I expressed regret that anything of the kind should occur to give him uneasluess. He is mistaken in saying I gave him assurance that there would be no dancing. I did no such thing. I did not know, but from the information derived from him, that the dance was contemplated, and, if I had, the trustees of the ward, and not the superintendent ware the representation. and not the superintendent, were the proper persons to interfere.

Some days after this conversation, speaking with the Principal of that school with regard to the exhibition, he observed that he had promised the girls, if they wished to dance, to pay for the music. I remarked, that could only be doue by consent of the Trustees. His reply was, we have the consent of the Trustees. I saw nothing more of Mr. Dearing until the afternoon of the "ball," as he calls it. I was entering the lange about 4 o'cleck and met him. until the afternoon of the "ball," as he calls it. I was entering the house about 4 o'clock and met him near the door. I observed to him, well, here is your "ball." His reply was, yes, and I am very sorry for it. As to his coming to me, if an accidental meeting near the post-office is meant, I have no objection to that part of his statement; but that I gave my word that there should be no "ball" is wrong. I did not do it. I knew my business better than to meddle with the privileges of the Trustees. They have sole control in such matters. It is entirely out of the purview of the duties of the Superintendent.

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 13, 1857

The High Court of Errors and Appeals of Mississippi has recently made a very important decision to the owners of steamboats, common carriers, and to the traveling community. It appears that in the month of December, 1853, Mr. McCaughan, a resident of Mississippi City, with his family, were desirous of visiting Mobile, and acting on public notice given by the agents of the mail line that boats would stop for passengers at Pascagoula, en ronte hence for Mobile, he, desirous to avail of the proposal, chartered a vessel and proceeded to Pascagoula, arriving on the wharf there in due season, say 10 o'clock at night, and waited till daylight the following morning for the boat (the Florida). But the Florida nor no other boat made its appearance. In the mean time Mr. McCaughan had discharged the schooner which conveyed him to the point and had to seek another mode to reach Mobile, causing great delay, loss, injury, and inconvenience. Suit for damages was brought in the Circuit Court of Harrison county, and the jury gave a verdict in his favor for two thousand and fifty dollars. The case went up on appeal to the High Court, where it appears the decision of the jury was affirmed.

According to the Boston Advertiser, "the new tariff will favorably affect some of the manufacturing interests, especially the mills which use wool largely of the coarser kinds. The New England Worsted Company will be materially benefited, and we hear of the stock changing hands at a large advance on previous prices. Lowell Manufacturing Company advanced five per cent. yesterday, and was in demand at $500 per share bid. The Bay State Mills will receive a new impulse from the change in the tariff, and the Pacific Mills also come in for a share, and others, too, will probably be added to the list. We believe, however, that the new tariff is not generally considered favorable to the cotton mills, especially those for the manufacture of the finer qualities."

HOOSAC TUNNEL .- We learn that the work on the great tunnel through the Hoosac Mountain, in Massachusetts, is progressing with extraordinary rapidity. Although so brief a period has elapsed since the contract for building the Troy and Greenfield Railroad, of which the tunnel forms a part, was taken, the approaches on both sides of the mountain have been completed, and nearly 600 feet have been driven in the mountain. In addition to this, seven miles west of the Hoesac mountain have been prepared for the rails. A strong confidence is now felt throughout Massachusetts that this great enterprise, formerly regarded as impracticable, will be carried through to an early completion.

OUR VARIETIES.

At an auction sale, in Paris last month, a diminutive coffee-cup of old and rare China porcelain was sold for $450, and a violin of Amati at $3,800.

The wife of Wm. H. Newton, who arrived with her husband at St. Paul, Minnesota, on the 19th of January, from the Lake Superior country, was dressed in a pair of fur pantaloons, buffalo boots, a buffalo overcoat, and a large otter cap. During the entire drive of three hundred miles, the thermometer ranged from 10 to 45 degrees below zero, and the trip was "very pleasant and comfortable."

A New Invention.—Two Pittsburg mechanics have produced an invention which we believe will work a great revolution in the application of steam to the propulsion of machinery. One of these men is a Swede, named Xelberg, and the other a German, named Gissinger. They made a written description in proper terms at the patent office and received the work for it. The object of the invention is to the patent for it. The object of the invention is to throw the force applied to the piston from the ceutre to the circumference of the wheel or circle formed by the revolution of a crauk. The force in the common engine expended upon the first 8th of the revolution by the piston rod, drawing, as it were against itself, is shifted to the disc of the wheel by the most ingenious, but simple contrivance, the instant the end of the piston has found its lowest resist in the revolution—Pitteburg Gaz. point in the revolution .- Pittsburg Guz.

Death of an American Lady Abroad.—Late advices from Florence state that Miss Mary Minturn, of New York, a lady of fortune, of rare intelligence and amiability of character, died recently at Naples. Miss Minturn had traveled extensively in Europe. She went abroad for the purpose of attending a nephcw of Robert Minturn on an European tour for the benefit of his health. It will be remembered that Dr. Kane named a river—the most beautiful in the Arctic regious—after Miss Minturu; and it is a somewhat singular coincidence that while Dr. Kane was dying at Cuba, Miss Minturn was breath-ing her last at Naples. She was taken down at Flosence with influenza and proceeded to Naples, where she died.

The Galt (C. W.) Reporter tells this story: "On The Galt (C. W.) Reporter tells this story: "On Wednesday last, a little girl about seven years old, the daughter of Mr. James Gay, was standing in the middle of the road opposite his residence, when a person came driving along at a rapid rate in a sleigh. A dog, seeing the child in the track, jumped forward, and in an instant dragged the child out of the way, allowing the team to pass it without injury.

A Centennary Soldler in Prison.—One of the keepers of the Auburn Prison writes to the Advertiser of that city, that among the inmates of that institu-tion is a man named Joseph Schooneven, who is within a few months of one hundred years of age. He claims to have fought with Washington and Lafayette, in the American revolution, and under the mand of Gen. Scott, at Chippewa

"FIFTY YEARS HENCE."-Rt. Rev. Bishop Clarke is stated to have delivered recently a lecture on the above subject, in which occurs the following passage, whether intended for prophecy or satire, how ever, we are not exactly able to determine:

ever, we are not exactly able to determine:

Fifty years hence the newly-married pair will step into an emporium for the sale of houses, look over the book of patterns, selectione to suit their taste and means, order it, and it will be sent home in the morning, put together and occupied at night.

In traveling, as great changes will take place. Instead of the dusty road and crowded car, there will be a splendid locomotive hotel, flying over a road carpeted with turf and bordered with shade trees, and heralding its approach with sweet music, instead of the demoniac shriek of the steam whistle, and labeled "through from Boston to San Francisco" and labeled "through from Boston to San Francisco in four days."

Instead of the unsightly telegraph poles, there will be, fifty years hence, a net work underground, and under the bosoms of the deep, and it will click off thoughts instead of words. Then the electric battery will light all the street lamps at once, enable all the clocks in the city to keep exact time, and kindle the leacons on the dangerous rocks, where now men hazard their lives and wear out their lone-

Then the author will not write by our slow process, losing his rarest fancies, but he will sit down to the newest invented chirographical instruments, and, patting his fingers on the keys, write as fast as he can think.

THE WILD WOMAN CAUGHT .- Information has been received here, says the Linden (Ala.) Jeffersonian of the 25th ult., that the "wild woman" was apprehended by a "party of hontsmen," a few days since, among the "Mossy Hills," six miles north of this place, after an exciting chase of two days. This has created a great sensation among the b'hoys, and the property being protested.

The "Great Eastern" steamship is expected to be launched in August next, but several months must elapse after that before she can be made ready for sea. The amount expended on her up to the present time is about $2,000,000; and an additional sum of $75,000 will probably be required to complete her.

[Special Correspondence of the Louisville Journal.] Rotation in Office—John C. Breckinridge—Mr. Guth rie—Contested Elections, &c.

Washington, March 10. In former letters I alluded to the fact that there would be some difficulty in parcelling out the offices under the present administration; for the reason that nearly all of them are now in the possession of professed Democrats. But the difficulty has been removed, to some extent, in this way, namely: those who e commissions shall expire will be considered "out of the ring," and as having received their full share of the spoils; while the administration will expire the rows of commissions of the spoils. share of the spoils; while the administration will exercise the power of appointing others to their places. This, we are satisfied, is the programme. If it shall become the policy of the party, all true and loyal Democrats must acquiesce. A refusal to do so would be regarded as heretical, and subject the dissentients to excommunication from the Democratic church. And so with regard to the foreign appointments. Gentlemen who have been dazzled at kingly courts must return, to give other ambitious gentlemen the honor of representing Uncle Sam abroad. The "outs" are, under all the circumstances, pleased with tia policy. Doubtless they think that, in the many changes which are to take place, they will profit by it. There must, however, be many disappointments, for all cannot be accommodated.

The cabinet had a five hours' session to-day, on this subject, and arrived at the conclusion above stated.

The several heads of the Departments had no sooner left the Cabinetthan they were overwhelmed with the attentions of the disinterested patriots who are so earnestly striving to serve their country in re-turn for some of the surplus millions in the Treasu-ry; and the President himself was occupied in re-ry; and the resident immsen was occupied in receiving friends of the same stripe.

An anecdote is told of Mr. Breckinridge. It appears that, on Friday, he entered a barber-shop, and,
after getting shaved, discovered that he had no change in his pocket to pay for the service. This fact he at once made known to the man of the racor who meaves of the discovered registing of zor, who, unaware of the character and position of his customer, began to murmur, intimating that that was an old trick of some of the visiting gentry, but taking care not to speak loud enough for Breckinridge to hear him with distinctness. The next morning the Vice President called and paid the bill, and not until then did the barber discover that he had operated upon the face of that distinguished gentleman. Of course he danced around with all gentleman. Of colorse he danced around with an imaginable politeness. As to the neglect to pay the dime at the time it was due, it made not the least difference! It was all right, even if the money had not been paid at all! A similar scene was once presented at the City Bath-house. Mr. Van Buren, the President, had left his purse home, in his "other" breeches pocket, and the ladies of the establishment colded him remails. scolded him roundly for performing his ablutions without paying the fee. He, however, promptly informed them who he was, but he was not believed, and not until he returned the next day and handed over "the quarter" was he relieved from the suspi-cion of being among that class who live by their wits and who regard "the world as a good fat goose," to be plucked with impunity. Messrs. Guthrie, Campbell, McClelland, and Dobbin have departed, and the other ex-members of the Calinet, and ex-President Pierce, will soon follow their example. None but those who are shaking in their hoots for fear of being turned out of office seem their hoots for fear of being turned out of office seem to regret the necessity which compels those distinguished gentlemen to "vamose."

The Democratic Scnators having, to-day, decided, in caucus, to adjourn on Saturday, there is not much probability that the Indiana contested cases, and the one from Pennsylvania, will be disposed of before that time. Therefore Messrs. Bright and Fitch in the one case, and Mr. Cameron in the other—if it should ultimately he decided that they are not entitled to their seats—will, meantime, draw their titled to their seats-will, meantime, draw their

Half a dozen treaties are still hanging in the Senate—the Central American, the recent one with Mexico, and the Sandwich Islands treaty, among the number. The Kansas Judgeship question is supposed to have terminated with the exodus of the late Administration. If so, there is an opening for fresh aspirants.

Lindley Marray.—It is not generally known that this "Prince of English grammarians" was an Amer-ican, and born within the present limits of Lebanon can, and born within the present limits of Lebanon county, Pa. He was born in the year 1745, on the Swatara, in East Hanover township, then Lancaster, now Lincoln county. His father was a miller and followed that occupation when Lindley was born, but afterwards devoted his attention to mercantile pursuits, and amassed a considerable fortune by trading to the West Indies. Lindley was the oldest of suits, and amassed a considerable fortune by trading to the West Indies. Lindley was the oldest of twelve children, and when about seven years of age was sent to Philadelphia, that he might have the benefit of a better education than could be had at Swatara. He studied law in New York, and at the age of twenty-two was called to the bar, where he gained for himself the reputation of an "honest lawyer." His "Grammar of the English Language" was composed in England in 1794, and published in the spring of 1795.

The Testimonial of the British Government to the Kane Expedition.—The gold medal presented by the Government to the officers and men of this expedition is stated to be about the size of a double eagle and a beautiful specimen of coinage. On oue side is a well-executed head of the Queen of England, is a well-executed head of the with her title in Latin; on the reverse is the inscription: "The British Government to the officers and men of the American Arctic Expedition," encircled by an elaborate oak wreath, surmonnted by a crown encircled and the whole surrounded with the words: "As a token of gratitude for their generous service."

Dr. King's Dispensary.

DR. A. KING, a practitioner of New York for the last thirty years, has opened a Dispensary on Market, bet. First and Second, nearly opposite the Grailan Honse, Lonisville, for the treatment of Private Diseases, such as Gonorrhoa, Syphilis, and all diseases of the skin and other de rangements growing out of neglect or imperfect cure. His long experience and success enable him to act with confidence. All those who may confide their cases to him may rest assured of having the disease effectually cured and every vestige of the difficulties perfectly eradicated from their constitutions.

STRICTURES of old or recent date effectually cured in a few days by an operation which causes no pain. Where a stricture exists, seneral derangement of the whole constitution must ensue, a continuance of which will hrins on a train of symptoms to be dreaded, and will undermine the constitution and canse premature old age.

SEMINAL WEAKESSE—Particular attention will be given to this disease and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on, in many cases, by the destructive habits of Inconsiderate youth and excessive indulgence of the passions, which undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for cither business or society, and causing premature old age.

27 Persons abroad, by writing and stating their cases, with a fee enclosed (post-pald), can have the medicine sent to their address, with necessary directions for using the same.

DUEL BETWEEN A NEW ORLEANIAN AND A SPAN-IARD.—On the 20th of last month, in Bayamo, a town in Cuba, Mr. Binson, a gentleman of New Orleans, and a Spaniard named M. Miguel Sardina, fought a duel with revolvers. Each was supplied with a five shooter, placed at 40 paces apart and told advance and tire; Binson received one bullet in the left shoulder, and Sardina received five different in parts of his body before he fell.

LADIES' FURS AT REDUCED PRICES
HAYES, CRAIG, & CO. are making quite a stir among the ladies in consequence of the low price of their Furs. Having on hand much too large a stock for the season, and much of it too fine for this market—at least the ladies think so—(they do not wish to humbug their customers by 'selling at cost')—have reduced their prices very materially, and are now furnishing the ladies with Furs of every description at mnch lower prices than they were ever before retailed for in the Western country, and intend to do so until after Christmas, which will afford a good oppertunity to all those who wish to make Christmas presents.
There certainly is nothing more seasonable for such purposes; and gentlemen inclined that way will find our Furs so low that they are within the reach of all.

ETAYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL-For the rapid eure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping-Cough, Asthma, and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds lu persons publicly known who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulm or zans which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many should be without lt, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pec oral need not he given to the American people—they living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored, and whose lives have been saved by its use will find them in my American Almanac, which the agent below named has to furnish gratis for every one.
